Dear Tami,

I wanted to take the time and thank you for all you did for Garston Group, Luxury Brands and the Front Row event in Miami. Your patience, dedication, and solution based attitude made for a refreshing and unique working experience. Your advice and attentive eye was key in our initiative to make a warehouse look, feel and comfort guests as if they were in a pre-existing amphitheater. The environment "We" created became the talk of the hair industry and town. The event is best described in American Salon,

"One minute into Front Row, and you know immediately it's not your usual hair show. "Welcome to the Coachella of the hair world," said Tev Finger, CEO of Luxury Brand Partners. The festival-style extravaganza of mainstage education, entertainment and inspiration took place on January 9-12 in Miami's historic Wynwood Art District."

Without Seating Solutions and your individual contribution, the event would not have captured the look, feel and effect of being Front Row. Thank you for all of the care and personal touch you put into the venture and I look forward to growing our platforms together.

Sincerely,

Michael G. Romer
